IMPORTANT STATEMENT

This wage garnishment directs the withholdings of up to 25 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income. In certain cases, however, federal law does not permit the withholding of that much of the debtor's disposable income. The judgment debtor is referred to the 15 United States Code §1671 et. Seq.

I. Limitations on the amount that can be withheld:

A. If judgment debtor's weekly disposable earnings are less than thirty (30) times the current federal minimum wage ($5.15 per hour), or $154.50, no deduction can be made under this wage garnishment.

B. If deductions are being made from a judgment debtor's gross income under any orders for alimony, support maintenance for family members or former spouses, and those deductions equal or exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the judgment debtor's disposable earnings, no deductions can be made under this wage garnishment.

C. If deductions are being made from a judgment debtor's gross income under any orders for alimony, support or maintenance for family members or former spouses, and those deductions are less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the judgment debtor's disposable earnings, deductions may be made under the wage garnishment. However, the amount arrived at by adding the deductions made under this execution to the deduction made under any orders for alimony, support or maintenance for family members or former spouses cannot exceed twenty-five (25%) of the judgment debtor's disposable earnings.

NOTE: Nothing in this wage garnishment limits the proportion or amount which may be deducted under any order for alimony, support or maintenance for family members or former spouses.

II. Explanation of limitations

Definitions

Disposable Earnings - Disposable earnings are that part of an individual's earnings left after deducting those amounts that are required by law to be withheld (for example, taxes, social security and unemployment insurance, but not deductions for union dues, insurance plans, etc.).

Gross Income - Gross income is salary, wages or other income including any and all overtime earnings, commissions and income trusts, before any deductions are made from such income.

Defendant

NOTICE TO DEFENDANT DEBTOR ON HOW TO CLAIM EXEMPTIONS

TO: Charles R. Lawson
4047 Lebanon Rd.
South Lebanon, OH 45065

The attached post-judgment process has been issued on request of the United States of America.

The law provides that certain property and wages cannot be taken. Such property is said to be exempted. The Claim for Exemption Form lists the exemptions under Federal law and your state law. There is no exemption solely because you are having difficulty paying your debts.

If you claim an exemption, you should (i) select either the Federal Bankruptcy Code exemptions or the state law exemptions, (ii) fill out the Claim for Exemption Form and (iii) deliver or mail the form to the Clerk's office of this Court and counsel for the United States.

Under the Federal Debt Collection Procedures Act of 1990 (FDCPA), you have the right to request a hearing. You have a right to have the hearing within five (5) business days, or as soon as practicable, from the date you file your claim with the Court.

If the United States of America as creditor is asking that your wages be withheld, the method of computing the amount of wages which are exempt from garnishment by law is indicated on the Claim for Exemption Form, which is attached. If you believe the wrong amount is being withheld, you may file a claim for exemption.

The garnishee, the person who is in custody or control of your property, is required to serve an answer within ten (10) days after receiving a Writ of Continuing Garnishment. Under the FDCPA, within twenty (20) days after receipt of the answer, you may file a written objection to the answer and request a hearing. In your written objection you must state the grounds for the objection and bear the burden of providing the basis of your objection. You must serve a copy of the objection and request for a hearing upon all parties.

If you request a hearing, you should come to court ready to explain why your property is exempt, and you should bring any documents which may help you prove your case. If you do not come to court at the designated time and prove that your property is exempt, you may lose some of your rights. You may wish to seek the advise of an attorney in this matter.
